Schroder Court

Northcroft Road, Englefield Green, Egham,
Surrey TW20 0EJ

Schroder Court is an attractive complex of flats and bungalows, set along a tree-lined avenue leading to an extended listed building with 44 sheltered housing flats. The scheme is in the village of Englefield Green and overlooks beautiful countryside.

Schroder Court has a full-time manager and deputy and an active social programme. A mobile library, milkman, prescription service and chiropodist make regular visits. Regular religious services are also held.

A local shop, the village High Street, the post office, the library and a GP's surgery are all within walking distance. The village has four churches and one collects residents.

We welcome residents from all sections of the community.

Retirement rented schemes

James Butcher Housing Association provides self-contained flats in 23 retirement rented schemes in southern England for more than 1,200 people aged 60 or over.

Our schemes have open waiting lists. To find out more, call the scheme manager.

At retirement rented schemes, residents sign up to an assured tenancy agreement and work with us to draw up a plan of the support they will receive. The cost of this support may be met by funding from the council's Supporting People budget if the resident is eligible.

Each scheme has a manager who provides support while on duty. Out of hours, residents have access to a community alarm call system.

Scheme managers:

- support residents to manage their tenancies
- make daily calls to all residents
- promote continued independence
- encourage residents to get involved in scheme activities
- involve other organisations that have resources to offer our residents.

Alongside the flats, schemes usually provide some shared facilities. For details see the front of this leaflet.
