Taylor Court

48 Tilehurst Road, Reading RG1 7TL

Taylor Court is an attractive building on tree-lined Tilehurst Road, located close to Reading town centre. It comprises 53 flats, arranged on four floors set in very attractive grounds. There are extensive grassed front and rear mature gardens that look across the valley.

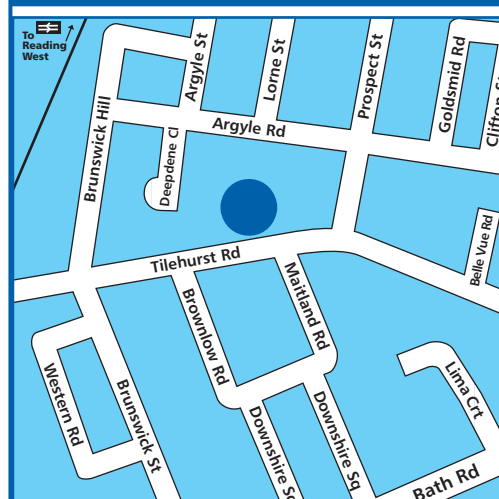

The scheme has a full-time manager and an active social programme. A mobile library, chiropodist and milkman call regularly at the scheme.

Within walking distance there are a local shop, two GPs' surgeries and a church, while Reading town centre is 20 minutes on foot or a short bus ride away, for all other amenities. There is a bus stop by the scheme's front gate.

We welcome residents from all sections of the community.

Retirement rented schemes

James Butcher Housing Association provides self-contained flats in 23 retirement rented schemes in southern England for more than 1,200 people aged 60 or over.

Our schemes have open waiting lists. To find out more, call the scheme manager.

At retirement rented schemes, residents sign up to an assured tenancy agreement and work with us to draw up a plan of the support they will receive. The cost of this support may be met by funding from the council's Supporting People budget if the resident is eligible.

Each scheme has a manager who provides support while on duty. Out of hours, residents have access to a community alarm call system.

Scheme managers:

- support residents to manage their tenancies
- make daily calls to all residents
- promote continued independence
- encourage residents to get involved in scheme activities
- involve other organisations that have resources to offer our residents.

Alongside the flats, schemes usually provide some shared facilities. For details see the front of this leaflet.
